FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 13, 2020

CONTACT: Jenni Bowring-McDonough
612.436.4886
jbowring@cvt.org

ST. PAUL, Minn.—The Center for Victims of Torture™ (CVT) will fill their windows at the intersection of University and Raymond Avenues for the fourth annual #Hearts4Refugees display on Valentine’s Day, to show support for refugee communities in Minnesota and around the world.

Neighboring businesses near University and Raymond Avenues will join the event. Others around the world will join in via Twitter, Instagram and Facebook using the hashtag #Hearts4Refugees.

WHEN: Friday, February 14, all day.

WHERE: CVT Headquarters, 2356 University Ave. W., St. Paul, 55114 / Storefronts at and near the corner of University and Raymond Avenues.

WHO: Organized by the Center for Victims of Torture™, a Minnesota-based, international NGO working with refugee survivors of torture and war atrocities for 35 years.

VISUALS: #Hearts4Refugees messages and hearts fill windows and doors. Digital #Hearts4Refugees message displayed at Snelling Avenue Light Rail Station.

INTERVIEW: Peter Dross, CVT’s director of external relations, will speak to CVT’s work with and support for refugees from around the world and the current climate for refugees and asylum seekers.

GRAPHICS AVAILABLE:
https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1T8qLowsgXDG8O4QH09Sfuaka0ypkx5He

###
The Center for Victims of Torture is a nonprofit organization headquartered in St. Paul, MN, with offices in Atlanta, GA, and Washington, D.C.; and healing initiatives in Africa and the Middle East.
Visit www.cvt.org